

Greetings All,

The Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe Website Team developed a CRST App (Spaces by Wix App) that will give you push notifications straight to your cellphones for any administrative or event announcements. The invitation was sent out via email on May 31, 2022, and it is not spam. Please download the free app from your Google App store or Apple App store to keep updated.

CRST Administration, Command Center, and Directors may contact the CRST Website Team (EvAnn White Feather, Justin LaPlant, or Jeremy Little Thunder) if you wish to send out notifications via the CRST App. You may also send a message of request to the CRST Website Team on the app for any announcements.

How to download the Spaces by Wix App, search Spaces on your android or iOS app store, and download. Search for CRST and sign up with your email address, Google, iCloud, or Facebook accounts. You may send out an invitation via text message, copy link, or social media on the CRST App. If you have any questions, please contact us at the address below. Pilamaye yelo.
