

Elk Harvest

(Cultural Event)

Tuesday, March 21, 2023
Starting at 9:00 AM
Lakota Cultural Center

This is a free cultural activity for everyone. So please dress appropriately if you will be attending.

The Lakota Cultural Center and Game, Fish & Parks Wildlife Division will be providing a great Cultural Learning Experience for anyone wanting to participate. Harvesting an Elk, with demonstration of processing, Cultural Teachings, and a traditional practice of sustainability of providing a natural food source.

From this harvest the Lakota Cultural Center will provide additional cultural teachings activities at later dates:

- Cutting meat to make bapa
- Stretching and working the Elk Hide
- Hand drum making class from the hide

If any questions feel free to contact the Lakota Cultural Center @ (605) 964-2542.
